Hours of poll.

4. The poll shall commence at nine o'clock in the morning and be kept open till ten o'clock in the afternoon of the same day and no longer.

PART II

STAGES COMMON TO CONTESTED AND UNCONTESTED ELECTIONS

Notice of election.

5.(1) Notice of the election as in Form A in the Schedule, shall be prepared, signed and published by the returning officer.

(2) Such notice shall be published in one or more daily newspapers and in such other way (if any) as the returning officer thinks best calculated to bring it to the attention of the electors.

Nomination of candidates.

6.(1) Each candidate shall be nominated by a separate nomination paper as in Form B in the Schedule, delivered to the returning officer as hereinafter specified.

(2) The nomination paper shall state the full names, place of residence and description of the candidate and the surname shall be placed first in the list of his names.

(3) The description need not refer to his rank, profession or calling so long as, with other particulars of the candidate, it is sufficient to identify him.

(4) If the description is unduly long, the returning officer after consultation (if possible) with the candidate or his election agent, proposer or seconder, may shorten it or substitute another.

Subscription of nomination paper.

7.(1) The nomination paper shall be subscribed in the presence of the returning officer by two electors as proposer and seconder and by eight other electors as assenting to the nomination and shall be deemed to have been delivered to the returning officer when not less than the required number of persons have subscribed their names to it.

(2) The returning officer shall provide nomination papers and shall, at the request of any elector, prepare for signature a nomination paper.

(3) No person shall subscribe his name to more nomination papers than there are vacancies to be filled:

Provided that a person shall not be prevented from subscribing his name to a nomination paper by reason only of his having subscribed his name to that of a candidate who has died or withdrawn before delivery of the first-mentioned paper.

(4) If any person subscribes his name to nomination papers in contravention of the last foregoing paragraph, his signature shall be inoperative in all but those papers (up to the permitted number) which are first delivered.

(5) In this rule “elector” means a person who is registered as an elector in the register to be used at the election or who, pending the publication of that register, appears from the electors list therefor, as corrected by the registration officer, to be entitled to be so registered, but shall not include a person who although so registered or entitled to be registered has not yet acquired voting rights.

Consent to nomination.

8.(1) A person shall not be validly nominated unless his consent to nomination, given in writing on or within one month before the day fixed as the last day for the delivery of nomination papers, and attested by one witness, is delivered at the place and within the time for the delivery of the nomination papers:

Provided that if the returning officer is satisfied that owing to absence from Gibraltar it has not been reasonably practicable for his consent in writing to be so given, a telegram consenting to his nomination and purporting to have been sent by him shall be deemed, for the purpose of this rule, to be consent in writing given by him on the day on which it purports to have been sent, and attestation of his consent shall not be required.

ELECTIONS RULESSubsidiary

- (9) The returning officer—
- (a) shall provide to every presiding officer appointed for the purposes of this rule the things specified in rule 21(3); and
 - (b) shall provide to every presiding officer (including presiding officers at polling stations) and to every observer a copy of the absentee list.

(10) On the date of the election, immediately before the commencement of the poll, every presiding officer appointed for the purposes of this rule shall comply with the requirements of rule 26 at the office of the returning officer.

(11) On the date of the election, having complied with rule 26 and within the hours specified in rule 4, each presiding officer appointed for the purposes of this rule shall attend at the place of abode of every voter whose name appears on the absentee list or, where more than one presiding officer is so appointed, at the place of abode of such of those voters as the returning officer may allocate to him, in order to receive the vote of that voter or voters:

- (c) the election shall not be invalid by reason of the inability of a presiding officer to attend at the place of abode of a voter on the absentee list within the time specified in rule 4.

(12) From the time that each presiding officer leaves the office of the returning officer to attend at the places of abode of voters on the absentee list until the time that he returns to the office of the returning officer —

- (a) he shall retain in his view and custody the ballot box provided to him;

- (b) he shall cause the aperture of the ballot box to be kept covered at all times except when the ballot paper of any such voter is being introduced; and
- (c) he shall be accompanied by his clerks, a police officer, and the two observers appointed in respect of him.

(13) No other person may accompany a presiding officer appointed for the purposes of this rule when he is attending at the place of abode of a voter on the absentee list or receiving such a vote:

Provided that the companion of any blind voter may be present in accordance with these rules when that voter votes.

(14) It shall be the function of every observer who accompanies a presiding officer under this rule to the places of abode of voters on the absentee list to observe that the requirements of these rules are complied with impartially, but no observer shall speak to such a voter concerning the exercise of that voter's right to vote. Every observer shall also make a declaration of secrecy in Form H in the Schedule.

(15) Subrules (2) and (3) of rule 29 shall not apply to a vote under this rule but every person voting under this rule shall be allowed to mark his ballot paper in secrecy, or with such secrecy as the circumstances reasonably permit, for the purposes of these rules, and shall then fold up the paper, show to the presiding officer the back of it so as to disclose the official mark, and put the ballot paper so folded into the ballot box in the presence of the presiding officer.

(16) Each presiding officer appointed for the purposes of this rule, with his clerks, police officer, and observers, shall proceed as expeditiously as possible in taking votes under this rule and shall thereafter return directly to the office of the returning officer where he shall comply with the requirements of rule 38 in the presence of the persons so accompanying him.

(17) Any polling agent may be present in the office of the returning officer when a presiding officer appointed for the purposes of this rule is complying with rule 38.

(18) No voter whose name appears on the absentee list published under subrule (5) may vote in the election otherwise than at his place of abode and under this rule.

The count.

(4) The returning officer, while counting and recording the number of ballot papers and counting the votes, shall keep the ballot papers with their faces upwards and take all proper precautions for preventing any person from seeing the numbers printed on the back thereof.

(5) The returning officer shall, so far as practicable, proceed continuously with counting the votes allowing only time for refreshment:

Provided that he may, in so far as he and the candidates or their election agents shall agree, exclude the hours between ten o'clock in the evening and nine o'clock in the morning.

(6) During the excluded time the returning officer shall take proper precautions for the security of the ballot papers and other documents, and in particular shall place the ballot papers and other documents relating to the election, under his own seal and the seals of such of the counting agents as desire to affix their seal.

Re-count.

41.(1) A candidate or his election agent may if present, when the counting or re-counting of votes is completed, require the returning officer to have the votes re-counted:

Provided that the returning officer may refuse so to do if in his opinion the request is unreasonable.

(2) No step shall be taken on the completion of any count or re-count of votes until the candidates and the election agents present at the completion thereof have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the right conferred by this rule.

Rejected ballot papers.

42.(1) Any ballot paper—

- (a) which does not bear the official mark; or
- (b) on which votes are given for more candidates than those for whom the voter is entitled to vote; or
- (c) on which anything is written or marked by which the voter can be identified other than the printed number on the back; or shall, subject to the provisions of this rule, be void and shall not be counted.

(2) Where the voter is entitled to vote for more than one candidate, a ballot paper shall not be deemed to be void for uncertainty as respects any votes as to which no uncertainty arises and those votes shall be counted.

(3) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this rule a ballot paper on which—

- (a) a vote is marked elsewhere than in the proper place; or
- (b) a vote is marked by more than one mark; or
- (c) a vote is marked otherwise than by means of a cross, shall not, by reason thereof be deemed void (either wholly or as respects any vote) if an intention that the vote shall be for one or other of the candidates clearly appears and the way the paper is marked does not of itself identify the voter and it is not clear that he can be identified thereby.

(4) The returning officer shall endorse—

- (a) the word “rejected” on any ballot paper which under this rule is not to be counted; and
- (b) in the case of a ballot paper on which any vote is counted under subrule (2), the words “rejected in part” and a memorandum specifying the votes counted; and shall add to the endorsement the words “rejection objected to” if an objection is made to such decision by a counting agent.

(5) The returning officer shall draw up a statement showing the number of ballot papers rejected, including those rejected in part, under the several heads of—

- (a) want of official mark;
- (b) voting for more candidates than the voter is entitled to;

- (e) rejected in part,

and any counting agent may copy such statement.

46.(1) The deposit made under rule 9 shall either be returned to the person making it or his personal representatives or be forfeited to Her Majesty.

(2) Except in the cases hereafter mentioned in this rule, the deposit shall be returned as soon as practicable after the result of the election is declared.

(4) Subject to subrule (3), a candidate shall forfeit his deposit if he obtains less than one-third of the number of votes obtained by that candidate who, of all the candidates elected, has obtained the least number of votes.

(2) The order may be made subject to such conditions as to persons, time, place and mode of inspection, production or opening as the court may think expedient and may direct the Registrar of the Supreme Court to retain them intact for such period as may be specified in the order:

Provided that in making and carrying into effect any such order, care shall be taken that the way in which the vote of any particular elector has been given shall not be disclosed until it has been proved that his vote was given and that his vote has been declared by the court to be invalid.

(3) Any power given under this rule to the court may be exercised by the Chief Justice in chambers.

(4) The production of any document by the Registrar of the Supreme Court in accordance with an order made under this rule shall be conclusive evidence that the document relates to the election specified in the order, and any endorsement on any packet of ballot papers so produced shall be prima facie evidence that the ballot papers are what they are stated to be in the endorsement.

(5) The production from proper custody of a ballot paper purporting to have been used at any election, and of the counterfoil marked with the same printed number and having a number marked thereon in writing shall be prima facie evidence that the elector whose vote was given by the ballot paper was the person who at the time of the election had affixed to his name in the register of electors the same number as the number written on the counterfoil.

(6) Save as is by this rule provided, no person shall be allowed to inspect any rejected or counted ballot papers in the possession of the Registrar of the Supreme Court or to open any packets of counterfoils.

Retention of documents.

50. (3) No misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place named in any register of electors, nomination paper, ballot paper, or notice shall affect the full operation of that document with respect to that person or place in any case where the description of the person or place is such as to be commonly understood.

(4) An election shall not be invalidated by non-compliance with the provisions of these rules, or mistake in the use of the prescribed forms if it appears to the court that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in these rules and that the non-compliance or mistake did not affect the result of the election.
